

COALITION to STOP
VIOLENCE AGAINST
NATIVE WOMEN

2017 IMPACT REPORT

FINANCIALS
A little goes a long way

MISSION

To stop violence against Native women and children by advocating for social change.

VISION & APPROACH

- Supporting community-based solutions
- Creating opportunities as a foundation for action
- Improving, supporting and building the capacities of our tribes and Pueblos to sustain healthy communities
- Establishing trust, partnership and reciprocity for collective action

STRATEGY

CSVANW has four focus areas:

1. Training
2. Technical Assistance
3. Policy Advocacy
4. Support

Our approach is informed by one fundamental value: work to engage tribal communities and community solutions created through partnerships and relationships based on respect.

What our youth are saying

"I aspire to them and they offer me motivation and inspiration ... I know that this experience will help me to pave a path to a successful future." - Shaylee Skidmore (Diné), 17, CSVANW intern

What our donors are saying

"I am so impressed with your work (I just reviewed the March 2018 newsletter). I immediately sent you a donation ... and will continue to do what I can to be supportive." - Keith T. Pryor

What our communities are saying

"Thank you CSVANW for becoming so involved in the work we do. Without your resources this work would be harder to do." - Tiffany Jiron (Isleta Pueblo), K'ea-wah Supervised Visitation & Safe Exchange Program Coordinator
